Nick Glew Joins Community Savings Bank as Vice President Lending

ROBINS, IA - Community Savings Bank is excited to announce the addition of Nick Glew as Vice President Lending to the team.

Nick will work as a Vice President Lending out of CSB's Robins office but serve customers all throughout Linn County. He will focus on further developing relationships in the area.

Nick has over a decade worth of experience in economic development and focused on the community of Marion during that time. He also brings years of banking and journalism experience.

He grew up on a farm between Manchester and Delhi; and later on, earned his B.A. at the University of Northern Iowa. Nick and his wife Erica have two children; and pride themselves in being involved in the Linn Mar Schools community. Nick is currently a board member for Iowa Workforce Development, Professional Developers of Iowa, the Cedar Rapids Metro Economic Alliance, and Marion Cares.

"CSB has community at its core," says Glew. "I'm excited to join a team that is laser focused on investing in the people and businesses that drive the success of the communities we live in."

Community Savings Bank is a locally owned and operated community bank that was established in 1910. CSB has assets of over $550 million, and has locations in Cedar Rapids, Coggon, Dyersville, Earlville, Edgewood, Garnavillo, Guttenberg, Manchester, Marion and Robins. Member FDIC.
